Escape to the mountains

Mountain River Lodges Ellijay, Georgia

If you need a break from the stresses of everyday life and are looking for rest, relaxation and solitude, look no further. Located in the beautiful north Georgia mountains, Mountain River Lodges offers an inviting retreat from everyday life that can be peaceful and serene or if you prefer, exciting and adventurous.

Riverstone Lodge and Rocky River Lodge are located on the breathtaking whitewaters of the Coosawattee River. Just over an hour north of Atlanta in Gilmer County, the lodges are a perfect place for adventures such as fly-fishing, canoeing, or kayaking and horseback riding.

Perhaps you would like to enjoy long walks in the woods where you may see deer, turkey and other wildlife. Listening to the sounds of nature while taking in some of the most beautiful scenery in north Georgia makes for the perfect vacation. In the quaint town of Ellijay, you can stroll the square and shop for treasures at the many local antique and craft shops.

Imagine ending your day, roasting marshmallows on an open fire or soaking in the outdoor hot tub, listening to the rushing whitewater of the river. Not a bad way to end your day.

Lodges Riverstone:

Located alongside the Coosawattee River, Riverstone Lodge is a spacious cabin perfect for taking some "time-out" from life's daily routine. The lodge is a great place for family get-togethers or reunions, church retreats or corporate groups. Riverstone sleeps up to 20 people comfortably, has three full baths, two great rooms with fireplaces, an eight person hot tub, pool table, volleyball court, basketball court, foosball, etc. Enjoy the lodge and all the amenities as well as the scenic surroundings along the river.
